

Prof. Dr. Rabab Abd El Majeed

Dean, Faculty of Business Administration

Biography

- Dr. Rabab Abd El Majeed is a distinguished academic and executive leader in the field of Business Administration, currently serving as Dean of the Faculty of Business Administration at STARDOM University. She combines academic excellence with extensive leadership experience in institutional development, strategic human resource management, quality assurance, and organizational excellence.
- Throughout her career, Dr. Rabab has led numerous strategic initiatives in higher education, specializing in organizational governance, strategic planning, institutional performance evaluation, and capacity building. Her expertise has contributed significantly to enhancing educational quality and organizational effectiveness.
- She has directed educational reform and quality assurance initiatives aligned with European Union standards, managing institutional evaluation and accreditation processes across several higher education institutions accredited by the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research in Egypt and internationally.
- Beyond academia, Dr. Rabab has successfully led strategic human resource development and professional training programs funded by the United States Agency for International Development (USAID). She remains committed to advancing academic excellence, institutional sustainability, and preparing future business leaders capable of driving organizational success.

Areas of Expertise

- Business Administration
- Strategic Management
- Human Resource Management
- Organizational Governance
- Strategic Planning
- Institutional Performance Evaluation
- Quality Assurance and Accreditation
- Organizational Development

- Capacity Building
- Leadership Development
- Higher Education Management
- Institutional Excellence

Academic Qualifications

- Ph.D. in Business Administration (University to be added)
- Master's Degree in Business Administration (University to be added)
- Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration (University to be added)

Selected Professional Contributions

Leadership and Professional Activities

- Dean, Faculty of Business Administration, STARDOM University
- Former Quality Assurance Unit Manager
- Director of Institutional Evaluation and Review Projects
- Director of Strategic Human Resource Development Programs
- Director of Capacity Building and Educational Reform Initiatives
- Consultant in Organizational Development and Institutional Excellence
- Project Director for USAID-funded Human Resource Development Programs

Academic Contributions

- Led institutional accreditation readiness and quality assurance initiatives in higher education.
- Designed and implemented organizational governance and institutional performance evaluation frameworks.
- Directed educational reform and capacity-building projects aligned with European Union quality standards.
- Supervised strategic human resource development and leadership training programs funded by USAID.
- Contributed to institutional excellence through continuous quality improvement and organizational transformation initiatives.

Professional Vision

Dr. Rabab is dedicated to advancing business education through academic excellence, strategic leadership, institutional innovation, and organizational development. Her vision focuses on preparing future business leaders capable of driving sustainable organizational growth while promoting quality assurance, international collaboration, and institutional excellence in higher education.